Seal Rescue Ireland Fundraising Terms and Conditions

Thank you so much for organising a fundraiser and for your commitment to supporting the work of Seal Rescue Ireland!

To ensure you have all of the necessary information to organise your fundraiser, please read the below terms and conditions. If you have any queries, please don't hesitate to contact our fundraising team by emailing events@sealrescueireland.org or calling 053 942 4980.

The organiser of any fundraising event must adhere to all existing legislation and apply for any permits/permission that may be required. To organise a permit, you will need to contact your local Garda Station. Please send a copy of any permits to Seal Rescue Ireland, Courtown Harbour, Co. Wexford..

Organisers are advised to ensure they have the relevant insurance cover in place for any event involving the general community or individual members of the public. Our insurance policy does not cover events held by our supporters.

Organisers wishing to use our name and logo must request permission from the organisation. If appropriate, our logo will be supplied by e-mail and authorised for use on event specific fundraising materials.

Please return all funds raised from the event/fundraising activity to Seal Rescue Ireland within 21 days of the event. You can donate via bank transfer, cheque, paypal on our website (specify reference number or by coming to the centre in person! We are happy to issue a receipt/invoice for total donation.

Please return the form overleaf completed for authorisation before proceeding with your fundraiser. From all of the team and all of the seals here at Seal Rescue Ireland, thank you so much for your support!
